Magis L Scholarship Conditions 27-28

Université Saint-Joseph de Beyrouth
(USJ - Saint Joseph University of Beirut)

Saint Joseph University of Beirut (USJ) offers the Magis L Scholarship, a non-social academic scholarship named after the Latin word Magis (meaning "more" or "greater"), intended for candidates applying to the first year of undergraduate studies (Bachelor) at USJ. The Magis-L Scholarship offers a tuition reduction for undergraduate studies (the first three years of the program), awarded to the most qualified candidates based on a thorough review of the candidate's academic records. Magis-L applications are evaluated in the order of priority based on the admission periods and must adhere to the application deadlines:

Admission Period	Early		Regular	Late
Magis L Scholarship Application Deadline	For programs without entrance exams: February 8, 2027	For programs with entrance exams: February 22, 2027	June 16, 2027	August 30, 2027
Response (Eligibility announced before tuition fee deadline)	March 31, 2027	March 31, 2027	July 29, 2027	September 30, 2027

Candidates may apply for the Magis L Scholarship without submitting an admission file initially, as long as they apply to USJ within the announced deadlines.

Candidates must submit the completed application form along with all required documents in a single PDF file, by email to bourse.magisL@usj.edu.lb. Incomplete applications or applications sent as multiple files will not be considered.

The required documents and conditions for the Magis L Scholarship are as follows:

- A certified copy of your official school transcript, including grades for grades 10 and 11.
- The minimum required cumulative average is 15/20 (Grades 10 and 11). Any application with a cumulative average below 15/20 will not be considered.
- A copy of your ID, passport or a recent civil status extract issued within the last 2 years.
- During the early admission period, all USJ programs are included.
- During the regular and late admission periods, the programs offered by FM, FMD, FP and ESIB are not included.
- For the regional campuses, applications for the Magis-L Scholarship for ESIB may be submitted during all admission periods (early, regular, and late).
- Successfully pass all courses to retain the scholarship and:
  - Maintain a GPA of 3.2 or higher for FM, FMD, FP, and ESIB
  - Maintain a GPA of 2.7 or higher for the other institutions
- The Magis-L Scholarship cannot be combined with other academic scholarships.
