Important notes: The scholarships granted to students cover, according to the percentage awarded, the tuition fees for the required credits of the undergraduate program (which lasts three years). Applications must be submitted within 30 days of the publication of the Lebanese or French baccaulaureate results. It must be accompanied by the validated and official baccaulaureate certificate and grades.

These documents must be sent by email as scanned or photographed copies to bureaudirecteur@usj.edu.lb or as photocopies in a sealed envelope addressed to the Rector's Office - USJ Rectorate, Damascus Road, facing the Institut français. Applicants should receive a decision regarding their application within ten days following the receipt of the documents. To be eligible for the renewal of the scholarship for the following year, recipients must be ranked among the top 10% of their class at the end of the academic year.
