

INSTITUTE OF OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY (IET)

HISTORY

The Institute of Occupational Therapy, affiliated with the Faculty of Medicine, was established in 2016 in collaboration with the University of Montreal. This profession complements the existing healthcare professions at USJ. It responds to the market demand for optimal care of individuals with disabilities.

MISSION

- Train competent occupational therapists dedicated to improving occupational participation among a diverse clientele, and who are capable and willing to influence the scope and status of the profession.
- Promote research for students, instructors, and professional and institutional partners alike.
- Expand and enhance professional opportunities across Lebanon.
- Consolidate the Institute's position as a national and regional reference in the field of occupational therapy.
- Contribute to the official development of reserved and reimbursed occupational therapy procedures.

SPECIFIC PROVISIONS OF THE INTERNAL REGULATIONS OF STUDY

In addition to the common provisions present in Articles 8 and 27 of the Internal Regulations of Study, specific provisions concerning the IET internships are specified:

Article 8: Mandatory Attendance

Absences during clinical internships within the IET program are not allowed.

Absences from internships, even if justified, must be compensated for. If a student is absent for more than 15% of the internship duration, they will be required to repeat the internship.

Students completing their internships off-campus must adhere to the regulations of both the Institute and the hosting institution.

An internship agreement is formalized between the USJ - Institute of Occupational Therapy and the institutions hosting internships. During their internship, every student is required to review, approve, and sign this agreement, or have it signed by their legal representative if they are a minor.

Article 27: Exam Sessions

Clinical internships adhere to the continuous monitoring system. Internships that are not validated during the semester cannot be validated during the second session.
