

Pierre El Haddad, PhD, DBA

Pierre is a senior associate at MACH Consultants, Paris, France and teaches Family Business at Emlyon and Organizational Development for doctoral students of public health at USJ. He holds a Ph.D. from Université de Lyon and a DBA from Université Jean Moulin Lyon III. He is a board member of Management Consulting Division of the Academy of management, chair of RISE Conference, founder of the Network of Organizational Development Experts (NODE), and president of SEPT NGO.

His research interests encompass diverse themes such as organizational development, improvisation, innovation, sustainability strategies, AI implementation, the seven-nodal CSR decision-making model ®, and Socio-economic performance.