

Michèle Kosremelli Asmar, MHA, PhD

Michele Kosremelli Asmar is an associate professor at Saint-Joseph University of Beirut, in the Department of Management, Evaluation and Health Policy (DGEPS) of the School of Public Health at the University of Montreal and associate researcher at the Laboratory of Economics and Management of Nantes-Atlantique (LEMNA). She is also the director of the Higher Institute of Public Health (ISSP) since 2016. She holds a doctorate in management (health field) from Paris Dauphine University and a Masters in Health Administration from the University of Montreal, Canada, as well as a Postgraduate Diploma in Institutional-Healthcare Management from Concordia University, Canada. Her areas of interest include public health, health systems, health data, interprofessional collaboration, disability, inclusion and vulnerability, health management, health promotion and education and human resources. She is president of the NGO "Include", which promotes the inclusion of children, young people and adults with special needs in the Lebanese society.