

MASTER IN EDUCATION
TEACHING AND PEDAGOGICAL COUNSELING
2026-2027

The master's in education, concentration "Teaching and Pedagogical Counseling," aims to strengthen students' abilities to implement teaching, pedagogical counseling, and research approaches. It contributes to the development of the following Program Learning Outcomes:

- A. Implement innovative teaching and pedagogical counseling practices
- B. Develop a reflective analysis of professional practices
- C. Engage in educational research approaches

Program Requirements (120 credits)

	AXES	Course Title
Common Requirements (60 credits)	General Pedagogy (12 credits)	Learning Theories and Pedagogical Choices (4cr) Digital Technology and Artificial Intelligence in Education (4cr) Humanistic Approaches and Educational Support (4cr)
	Research and Thesis (48 credits)	Research Methodology in Education (4cr) Problem statement in Education (4cr) Quantitative Research Methods (4cr) Qualitative Research Methods (4cr) Research Workshops in Education 1 (4cr) Research Workshops in Education 2 (4cr) Thesis in Education 1 (10cr) Thesis in Education 2 (14cr)
Specialty (44 credits)	Pedagogical Counselling in Education (28 credits)	Pedagogical Alignment and Inter/Transdisciplinary Approaches (4cr) Neuroscience in Education (4cr) Differentiated Pedagogy and Inclusive Approaches (4cr) Assessment and Regulation of Learning in the Age of AI (4cr) Strategies and Role of the Pedagogical Advisor (4cr) Professional Development and Learning Communities (4cr) Team Management and Relational Dynamics (4cr)
	Internship in Pedagogical Counselling (16 credits)	Seminar of Professional development in Education (4cr) Supervised practice seminar (4cr) Seminar in Pedagogical Counselling and Portfolio Development (4cr) Internship in Pedagogical Counselling (4cr)
	Electives (16 credits)	Check the list of electives